Director's Notes

I have wanted to direct this play since I first read it when I was working in a job that felt a bit like a cage. I am grateful for this opportunity. My thanks to our Chooks and to Linda, Mandy & Lesley for their work with us. Thanks also to the crew, front of house and committee. A special thanks to Stephanie for her support. I hope you enjoy flying with us.

Loretta Donnelly

I would just like to thank you all for supporting the Season of One Act plays. I chose this play because of its charm, its humour and more simply because I loved it. Thanks must go to STG for all their support and to my wonderful actors, without whom the show would not have been possible. I hope you enjoy He Said And She Said just as much as I enjoyed reading and directing it.

Over the years I have seen many one act plays. Last year I attended the performance of a new one act play "Something Blue" written by a local Playwright Kate Beck. She creates chaotic situations, breeds riotous comedy moments when we take a look at what first seems a routine day for Father Francisc and his helper Sister Francis as they prepare for a wedding and a funeral on the same day and nothing goes to plan.

It has been a joy to work with the cast and we had many funny moments during rehearsals. So sit back and enjoy. Thank you one and all.
